

Ice Cream Social Run

When: Saturday, July 31, 2010

Meeting at: County Line Restaurant and Shell Station
Intersection of Hwy 290 & FM 362
Waller, TX (South Side of Hwy 290)

Time: 9:00 AM, Wheels Turning at 9:30 AM

Come join us for a full day of not so direct Texas roads and Blue Bell ice cream. It is the middle of summer and it is time to get out and stretch your legs so to speak. Leave Houston behind and join us for some good clean air, bright and shiny cars, good food and Blue Bell ice cream. The weather should be just right. We will be hitting the famous blue bonnet trails between Houston and Brenham. The scenery will be beautiful with lots of flowers to watch for but unfortunately, the blue bonnets will be gone by then. After a spirited run, we should work up a good appetite. We will be stopping at the famous Must Be Heaven Old Fashion Ice Cream Parlor in historic downtown Brenham featuring what else? Blue Bell Ice Cream. If you have never been to Must Be Heaven, then you are in for a real treat. Oh, yeah, you can eat lunch if you want to, but I am planning on filling up on ice cream first. To heck with your waistline, this opportunity only comes along once in a blue moon. Let's just have lunch and ice cream. For those so inclined, we will have a return run planned that is not so direct. If you are all mellowed out from the full tummy of ice cream, then you can just hop on 290 and head home the direct way after the lunch. Pencil in the date now on your calendar.
